

Danny Burrell

780.414.1234

danielgburrell@gmail.com

Danny Burrell is a dynamic speaker with over ten years of experience delivering training. He presents new ideas, concepts and systems using humour, enthusiasm and plain language to help the information stick. He has worked with a wide range of audiences on a wide variety of topics with excellent results. Danny has his master level instructor for the Nonviolent Crisis Intervention program; he is also an award-winning teacher's assistant and coach. Using his classroom and coaching experience, Danny is able to explain the complex simply and encourage results. Using humour and passion, he is able to help others obtain the positive and possible in difficult situations.

Areas of expertise

- Crisis management
- Crisis intervention

Experience

Workshop delivery

Danny has delivers workshops on a variety of topics, such as inclusion, behavioral techniques, anger management, crisis management and teacher and teacher assistant team work.